

HELLO PILGRIM REST FAMILY,

Praise God for blessing us to have made it through the month of May as we celebrate on this last day of the month. Indeed, God is faithful.

I remain aware that as we live through this season in which we now find ourselves, there are so many things that change from month to month. In fact, for many of us we have discovered that we have more questions that we have answers. I offer to you a phrase that our elders have embraced that assisted them in getting through many of the most difficult seasons and challenges that have occurred in their lives. Our elders would say, "I do not know what tomorrow holds, however, I know who holds tomorrow."

May you be encouraged to know the God who holds tomorrow, and to know that the God who holds tomorrow is the God who holds you.

WE REMAIN PRAYERFUL FOR THE FAMILIES OF THOSE WHO HAVE GONE TO BE WITH GOD

PRAYING FOR AND DEMANDING JUSTICE

We remain prayerful for the families of Ahmaud Arbery and Breonna Taylor. We know that the presence and peace of God is able to sustain them through the passing of their loved ones and through the current battle for the pursuit of justice.

Additionally, we remain prayerful for those involved in ensuring that justice is given on behalf of Ahmaud Arbery and Breonna Taylor (and her boyfriend, Kenneth Walker).

We remain prayerful as we now demand justice for Ahmaud Arbery and Breonna Taylor. Following are the names and addresses of those who have the responsibility of ensuring a just outcome in both of these cases. Your letter should be forceful, yet respectful. You are not making a request, you are making a demand. You are not asking them to pursue justice, you are telling them to pursue justice. You are not making your demand out of anger, you are making it out of love.

Paul tells us in Ephesians 4:15, ¹⁵ Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. (NIV)
